

An aerial photograph of a luxurious backyard recreation center. The central feature is a large, irregularly shaped swimming pool with a light blue hue, surrounded by a light-colored stone deck. To the left, a building with a tan tiled roof and a series of arches is visible. In the foreground, there are two fenced-in tennis courts with green surfaces. A large, colorful water play park with slides and climbing structures is situated in the lower right. The entire area is landscaped with green grass and several palm trees. The sky is a clear, deep blue.

Resort Style Amenities in Your Own Backyard.

For fun, there's a lavish 105,000-gallon lagoon-style pool that meanders around lush tropical foliage. There's even an elaborate Kid's Water Play Park with fountains. There are tennis courts and separate playgrounds for toddlers and "big" kids. A recreation center includes comfortable meeting and social rooms, and a complete kitchen with a serve-thru counter.
